

The Public University & The Legislative Process

Tuesday, October 18, 2016

3:00pm-4:00pm

Fall Colloquium Series

Presented by

The Center For Studies in Higher Education, University of California, Berkeley

Featuring

Senator Carol Liu Senator Loni Hancock

25th District

9th District

Senator Carol Liu was elected to the California State Senate in 2008 and re-elected in 2012 to represent the newly drawn 25th District. She represented the 44th Assembly District from 2000-2006. Prior to her election to the State Assembly, Carol served eight years as a La Cañada Flintridge City Councilmember, including two terms as Mayor.

Senator Loni Hancock has spent more than four decades as a forceful advocate for open government, educational reform, environmental protection, economic development, and social justice. Prior to her election to the California State Senate in 2008, she served three terms in the California State Assembly (14th District).

Social Science Matrix

8th Floor Barrows, Room 832

UC Berkeley

Join the conversation as Carol Christ, Interim Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost moderates a discussion on "The Public University and the Legislative Process" with Senator Carol Liu and Senator Loni Hancock.

Experienced legislators with close ties to Berkeley, State Senators Loni Hancock and Carol Liu will discuss the future of California higher education and legislative process. How does the legislature advance its priorities in regard to higher education? What should be its policy objectives? Senator Loni Hancock chair of the Senate Committee on Public Safety and a 14-year veteran of the legislature as well as former mayor of Berkeley, represents District 9 in the East Bay. Senator Carol Liu, chair of the Senate Committee on Education and also a 12-year veteran of the legislature, and a Berkeley native, represents the 25th district in Southern California.

Sponsored by the Center for Studies in Higher Education, UC Berkeley Persons who wish to request disability-related accommodations, including sign-language interpreters, should call (510) 643-9212. Please request accommodations as early as possible to assure the best possible arrangements

Official University Poster: Remove by October 19th, 2016